Sugar Chef Jennifer Ladisky has been creating custom designed wedding and special occasion cakes for years. A graduate of the esteemed Johnson & Wales' Baking and Pastry Arts program, Jennifer Ladisky About SugarChef Cupcakes spent six years on the competitive circuit, earning awards against the regions' top pastry chefs under the scrutiny of judges representing the industry's premier talents has been further honored to design for New York City's prestigious James Beard House, and now brings her creations to clients throughout South Florida. Some of the Sugar Chef's clients include Celine Dion and Past Presidents. In addition to the gourmet cupcakes, when you visit Sugar Chef Cupcakes you can browse albums with hundreds of photos of the birthday cakes, wedding cakes, and shower cakes that Sugar Chef is most famous for producing. "Many people compare us to Cake Boss or Ace of Cakes, and we like to say that we were making fanciful cakes before they were on TV" says Ladisky. Sugar Chef even has a cake concierge in the store during peak times to help you design a custom cake for your special event. Be sure to call ahead, as the appointments are on a first come first served basis. So, come on in, try some of our decadent flavors. We're sure that after trying Sugar Chef Cupcakes just once, you'll be coming back again and again. We look forward to welcoming you, and making your life a little sweeter one bite at a time.
